IN FOCUS

FXB India Suraksha with support from Arghyam Foundation has initiated a three-year intensive Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) program in 34 villages in Jharkhand in eastern India. This initiative reaches more than 32,000 people from over 6,000 households.

HIGHLIGHTS

“For going to toilet, I no more have to wait for the sunset” says Muthulakshmi of Mathur Periya Colony of Villupuram district in Tamil Nadu as she has her own toilet today. This was not the case until, FXB India Suraksha (FXBIS) facilitated two villages in Mathur Panchayat to become free from open defecation.
